

2022 New Features and Early Bird Pricing

We are excited to announce the launch of our SmartMerch line. Available on all of our classic Amulights, SmartMerch lets you choose between a scannable QR code, or tappable NFC chip to be built into your product. This links your branded products to websites, event schedules, and other online content to engage your audience like never before.

To help us maintain fulfillment times through festival season we are offering discounted pricing to our early birds during our slower months.
